

Understanding and engaging with the Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA)

 Course duration: 1 day

Suitable for: All criminal justice and associated managers and practitioners

Get your team up to speed with MAPPA

There has never been a greater emphasis on risk and public protection in criminal justice. This training offers teams the opportunity to gain complete understanding and engagement with the statutory Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA), which cover the following areas:

- Management of offenders
- Protection of the public
- Reducing serious sexual and violent offending behaviour

Key course elements

The following areas can be tailored to your teams' needs:

- An introduction to MAPPA
- Legislation
- Structure
- Practice, procedures and guidance
- Effectiveness
- Addressing common myths
- How high risk of harm offenders are managed in the community
- Protecting: Jayne – a video case study
- Local context
- Agency policy and procedures
- Contribution and role
- Future challenges and developmental issues

The trainer/consultant

Phil Smith is a consultant and trainer with over 30 years Criminal Justice experience as a practitioner, manager and trainer within the Probation Service and the voluntary sector, with particular expertise in public protection.

He has chaired a Multi-Agency Public Protection Strategic Management Board and is currently leading on a substantial review of the National MAPPA Guidance.

For more information on Phil's training course or for a FREE 40 minute consultation with Phil please visit:

www.backstop.org.uk/pages/training.php

Or call Iman / Janet on 08444 993389 or email training@backstop.org.uk

Testimonials

"Phil has a good understanding of learning theories and principles and consistently demonstrates these in his well prepared and constructed training plans. He possesses emotional intelligence, can always be depended upon and has a thoroughly professional approach to all that he does...He makes good use of stories, metaphors and concrete examples to enhance learning."

Marilyn Henry, Programme Manager,
National Probation service, July 2007

"Phil has an inclusive, facilitative relaxed and engaging style. He demonstrates a natural empathy which works with people and engages them depending on 'where they are coming from'. He uses humour imaginatively and appropriately and is able to support his material/presentations with concrete/practical examples."

Graham Beech, Director of Offender and Justice Studies, Crime Concern, July 2007

Clients

Phil's recent clients include: The Ministry of Justice) Public Protection Unit, Crime Concern, The Probation Service, Swindon and Wiltshire Youth Offending Teams.