

YOUTH OFFENDING TEAM

In the heart of London, you'll find famous shops and legendary landmarks alongside Britain's flagship council - setting the standards others follow and delivering world class city management in a low-tax environment. Westminster - you can build your future here.

In all these roles, you'll strive to prevent offending behaviour and protect the public by working with children, young people or their families. In many cases, it will also mean supporting and rehabilitating young people (or looked-after children) who offend or at risk of re-offending. You'll also liaise with partner agencies.

Prevention Parenting Worker

SCP 29-38: £26,928 - £33,777 p.a.

Fixed term until 31 March 2011

Part of a multidisciplinary team, you'll work largely with the parents of young people at risk of offending. You'll deliver individual and group interventions using evidence-based programmes - and ensure our services are consistent and coordinated. Quote ref: 3201.

YISP Key Worker

SCP 29-38: £26,928 - £33,777 p.a.

Fixed term until 31 March 2011

We'll rely on you to create and coordinate individually tailored programmes for a number of young people who are at risk of offending. Quote ref: 3200.

RAP Social Worker

SCP 29-38: £26,928 - £33,777 p.a.

You'll develop and deliver individually tailored programmes for young people who have offended. However, your focus will be those with drug or mental health issues. Quote ref: 3202.
